

OCR A Level Critical Thinking Student Book (AS)

Jo Lally

This student book is tailored to the new OCR specification, with all text monitored by OCRs critical thinking team. It guides the reader step-by-step through the course. The text caters for a whole range of learning abilities, with stretch and challenge activities included for the most able students. It features a unique Exam Cafe which motivates students and helps them to prepare thoroughly for their exams. It completely covers the two A2 level units. This book includes a Live Text CD-ROM which gives the reader an electronic version of the book, as well as providing interactive activities and additional materials to help support learning and revision.
