

Obsession

Ramsey Campbell

The deal seemed too good to be true. Until it came time to pay. The letters said, Whatever you most need, I do. The price is something that you do not value and which you may regain. To four teenagers, it seemed an offer too good to pass up. They filled out the enclosed forms. Indeed, they soon got what they needed most, but in shocking ways they never imagined. Twenty-five years later, they have never been able to forget the horror. But its not over yet. In fact, its about to get much worse. Now its time to pay the price.
