Occupational Spanish For
You - Law Enforcement

Juanita McCoy

This book is intended to help Law Enforcement Officers speak the Spanish they need, when they need it. It is geared for the officers on the streets but it is also a magnificent tool for the investigators. It is not a conversational book but a book to get your message across forcefully or with empathy at the right time, every time. It contains the alphabet, numbers, days, months, alert words, case scenerios, Miranda Rights, Sobriety Tests, and much, much more. Everything from greeting to the conclusion of a case. All the words, phrases, sentences, and questions mentioned in this book are listed in alphabetical order in the back for easy and expedient access. This book is probably one of the most useful books you will ever come across. An excellent report writing reference book. A brilliant MUST HAVE book for the officer who has to deal with the Hispanic community on a daily basis. Dont get caught at an awkward moment not knowing what to say, my book will help you interpret your thoughts. The investigators will love your comprehensive report writing. Most importantly, it lists the words that May Save Your Life!! A MUST Read Section.
