

The Odd Testament

Randolph Bridgeman

The Odd Testament is an all-expenses-paid journey into the heart of an America populated by loners and losers, bullies and the broken-hearted. A weird and beautiful lesson in history and theology, simply put, grand poetry-innocent and hard, human, often profane, and above all honest. Bridgemans genius is in his ability to make these whackos breathe on every page, and in spite of ourselves we love them all.
